

Contract Trainers

Construction Management Software

Qualifications: Our contract training team consists of qualified CPA's and CPA Firms who contract with us to perform client training and conversion services at customer locations across the United States. Typical client visits consist of 40-50 hours per week. Willingness to travel is essential.

As a member of the team you will play a key role in the conversion and training process with the goal of a smooth and timely implementation. This involves working closely with the clients to set up software options, convert existing data, training the clients staff, understand and manage their expectations, as well as working closely with the Dexter + Chaney Conversion Manager.

A CPA designation with accounting system conversion experience is required. Construction accounting experience is preferred.

Dexter + Chaney, manufacturer of Forefront® Construction Management Software has won several awards for growth of its construction management software business. Voted one of the fastest growing companies in Washington state nine years in a row. Dexter + Chaney also recently placed among the 100 fastest-growing, privately owned companies in the state of Washington as ranked by the Puget Sound Business Journal.

Founded in 1981, Dexter + Chaney supplies the construction industry with state of the art construction software. Dexter + Chaney's Forefront Construction Management Software includes construction accounting; project management; job cost; integrated document imaging; equipment, materials, and service management; and a variety of data sharing capabilities.

Dexter + Chaney construction software clients, located throughout the United States, are supported by its staff of certified public accountants (CPAs) and technical personnel. Our staff are professionals in both construction accounting and construction software. Continued growth has provided an immediate opportunity for experienced Contractor Trainers.

Interested Contractors should e-mail their resume with cover letter to HR@dexterchaney.com. Please include the "Contract Trainer" in the subject line.
